

Firework's Poem Collection

Story Time City

Fireworks

She walks down the path
My heart bursts
Fireworks explode
She turns around
And sees me
She walks off
That beauty fading
Not the outer,
But the one on the inside

Sleeper

I drift in the sky
Not skipping by
Too afraid to talk
Too afraid to walk
Love is in the air
But I'm getting nowhere
She doesn't notice me
She's hurt me badly
In my heart and soul
I'll never reach my goal
Where the love is on both sides
She'll rip out my insides
Tearing out the heart
There is no start
To what I've been striving
It's driving me mad
This love

Shadows

I want to step in the spotlight
But I don't think I can
I would crumble at every insult
Every bad review would kill me
I don't think I can handle it yet
It's just too much
I want to step out of the shadows
But the light is just too bright
I want to tell you I love you
But I'm too afraid

Last Star

We are the last stars
We bear the scars
Of broken hearts
Together
We bear the hatred
Of many people
Who envy us
And desire to kill
We have stayed alive
And not have been crushed
By beings
Staying alive is our job
As we are the last stars

The Beginning Of Dawn

Little heart, soft mew
The soft touch of tiny paws
A smile stretching far and long
This is the start
Of Dawn, my kitten

You Never Loved Me

You never loved me
You never said hi
You never even looked my way
Your eyes show disgust
When you see at me
But I still follow you
Like a starving puppy after food
I still see you as shining beauty
I still see you as a goddess
I still love you
Even though
You never loved me

Winter's Song

The song of Winter
Is the song of death
The song of broken hearts
The song of horrible people
The song of a sad melody
The song of Winter
Means Spring is nearby

Uncaring Fate

Slender beams of moonlight
This darkened prison as I kneel,
Always a slave,
Always alone,
Frozen here,
Waiting.

Tortured forms wrought in panes of glass loom
As dust dances in the air,
Forming an image in my mind,
Piercing my pale flesh.
Tears on my face.
I raise my head,
Now crying out for this uncaring fate.

This Is Your Love

Around, all around
The dark angels gather
My fear grows as the pain
Of your words fall against my soul.

It wounds me
Darkly my essence drips
To the cold, uncaring earth.
In a haze of shock, I call your name.
While my nightmare takes me.
Now alone, my soul falls upon uncaring eyes.
This is your love.

Meaningless

Sunstreaked skys
Spill out before me
As I lay in chains
Waiting for you
I wait for you
To come
And save me
Countless hours pass
I give up
I scream your name
To the moonstreaked sky
But your name has no meaning
It's just meaningless words
Filled with love and despise
You've hurt me
Time and time again
But now
As I scream your name
Everything seems Meaningless

Shadows, Spotlight, Limelight

Standing in the shadows
I watch the spotlight
Follow the beautiful ballerina dancing
The limelight shines
On the singer standing tall
Amazing music she is producing
I stand in the shadows,
Never to step out
As other people would overpower me

Bad Things Happen

Bad things happen
To innocent children

Rape

Molest

Murder

Death threats

And many more

We are the children of the world

We will create the future

The adults had their chance

Adults, please stop

Trying to take away our future power

Or else, you'll grow old and die

With no one to pay for you

With no one to care for you

You see

Bad things can happen

To you

Or me

Drumbeat

Your disgust of me
Is like a pound on my skull
It hurts me
You hurt me every day
My heart beats fast when I see you
Like a drum in a rock song
But when you turn around and look at me
That drumming inside my head starts
Reminding me that you hate me
And that we could never be together
The pounding in my skull
It throbs with new misery
The drumbeat of my life
Fast and excited beat
Cold and lonely throb
Why do you make me feel this way?
You're the reason
For the drumbeat of my life

Flame

Water drips on me
I crackle and I sizzle
I shiver in the darkness
But emitting a glowing light
People sit around me
Taking away all my heat
Smoke drifts in the air
Like the thoughts in my head
Twirling and swirling
Then disappearing
When they get too far away
Drip Drip Drip
I'm soon only
A dying flame
You walk up to me
A pot in your hands
And you extinguish me
For good
That's what you did
To my heart
It was once a burning flame
But now it's only Ashes and Embers

The Love That Has Only Escaped Me

Love is all around us
You cannot escape it
You cannot lose it
All except me
Trapped in a cage
Loveless

The Last Moment

The poor soldier leaked life,
As his sword was thrust upon his chest,
Shadows shot and heads watched,
As faces twisted into ugly shapes,
    A call from a bird,
As the bones rotted here,
    Yet souls were struck,
Destroyed as if they were nothing more
    Then broken glass.

The Last Night

Moonlight fell
Softly on me
It touched my heart and soul
With it's beauty
That dark night
Moonlight shimmered
And shined
Along with the Stars
I savored the beauty
Closing my eyes
That was the last I saw
Of the world

Sky

*Tears streamed down
Plop plop plop
You hate me
I love you
Forever clashing
Sometimes life seems Meaningless
But my friend
Always reminds me
That life is good
I reflect at past years
You never liked me
Not even as a friend
You hate me
The world is so cold
Fate is so uncaring
BOOM!
Tears fall
From the shining sky
Now I know
You will only love me
When the world is ending...*

Birds (Part 1)

The baby bird cherped
Taking in it's first breath of life
Flapping it's bare wings
It looks for her mom
All she sees is my face
She looks up at me with Beady black eyes
The only one she has
Is me

Birds (Part 2)

I cried bitterly over the Broken body
The egg was held
Gingerly in my hands
I closed my eyes and remembered...
CRASH
The branch burned
In the wet night
I looked up and saw something
Flying through the air
Stretching out my hands
I caught
The little egg
I sat there
While the storm stopped
Looking at the broken body
Of a blue jay

Giving

The world has turned white
Colorful lights wound houses
It's Christmas time
The time of giving gifts
The time of giving presents
The time of giving joy
Give a gift to those poorer
And spread joy
Put presents under other trees
Now that, that
Is the majestic
Spirit of Christmas

Rebirth

It's the start of A brand new Year

Old fights are Forgotten

And new friendships are Created

The world turns over in birth
Let the world be reborn
As to yourself

What Fear Does To Us I

Fear, kills me
Hides me
With cold hands
Twisting my soul
And tearing my love.
Hiding underneath
It's hat
Horrible war
Appearing like
Fear
